

Memory Support

A Different and Better Alternative to Memory Care

United Methodist Communities at The Shores understands how important it is for older adults who are facing memory loss due to Alzheimer's or related dementias to live in supportive surroundings with experienced associates. That is why our Memory Support Residence, housed in Assisted Living, offers an environment, programs and services specially designed to care for older adults with dementia.

Compassionately Serving So That All May Have Abundant Life

At United Methodist Communities at The Shores we are dedicated to compassionately serving older adults at every stage of their lives. When you choose The Shores and our parent organization, United Methodist Communities, you are joining a family that has specialized in senior lifestyles for over a century. United Methodist Communities at The Shores' combination of humanity and vitality form the foundation for an abundant life.
